

German WW1 "Paris Gun": 8.2 inch shells, 5400 ft/sec, about 80 miles maximum range

This photo shows the support braces fully deployed. The gun fired from a rotating turntable rather than from its railroad carriages, at least in its first installations.

